

DUCK

for President

From the Creators of
CLICK, CLACK, MOO: COWS THAT TYPE

and
GIGGLE, GIGGLE, QUACK

... your vote counts!

- ☒ Have you ever voted? What did you vote for?
- ☒ Have you ever been to a polling station—the special place where votes are cast? Where is the polling station closest to you? Ask you parents whether you can go with them to vote in the next election.
- ☒ Take a vote about Duck for President. Would this book win an election for “Funniest Book of the Year”? Ask you friends to vote Yes or No.
- ☒ If you were running for President, how would you do it? What would you say in your speech?
- ☒ Do you know the name of the President of the United States? How about the governor of your state? Which other elected officials do you know the names of?
- ☒ What election would you most like to win?

Did you know...

Fun facts about the Presidents of the United States

GEORGE WASHINGTON loved cream of peanut soup.

JOHN ADAMS and his wife Abigail were the first presidential couple to live at the White House – even though it wasn't completely finished at the time.

JAMES MADISON's friends called him "Jemmie."

ANDREW JACKSON was the first president to ride on a railroad train.

JAMES POLK was the first president in office to have his photo taken.

JAMES BUCHANAN threw parties at the White House where he served sauerkraut and mashed potatoes.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN grew a beard because a little girl wrote him a letter telling him that he would look more handsome with a beard.

ULYSSES S. GRANT's favorite breakfast was a cucumber soaked in vinegar—a pickle.

JAMES GARFIELD was the first left-handed president.

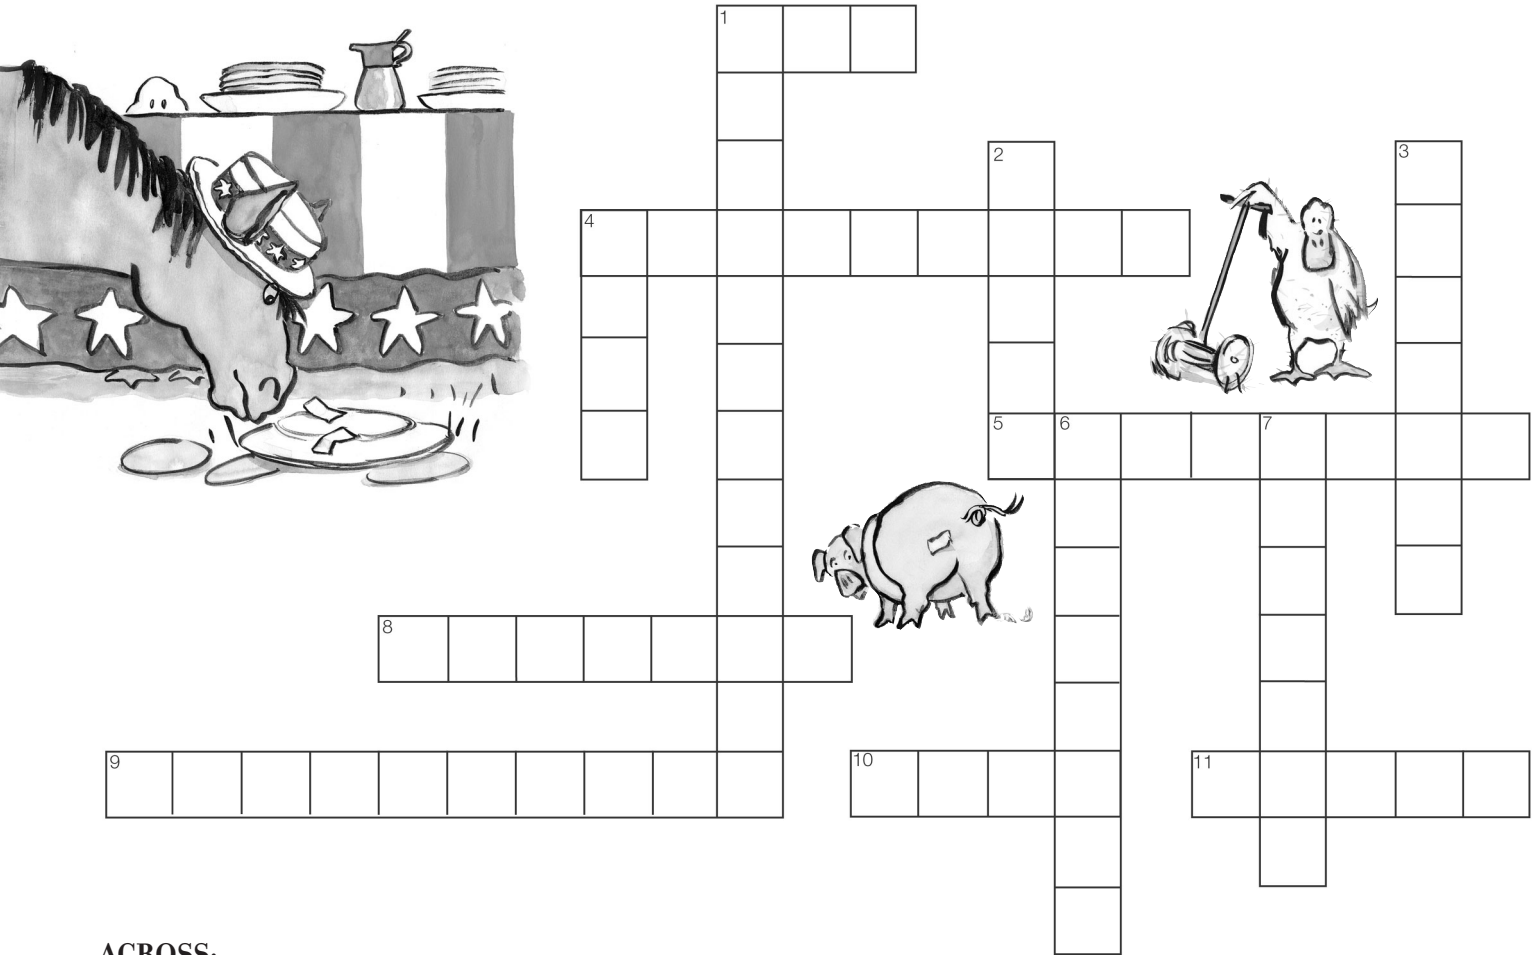

President WILLIAM MCKINLEY always wore a red carnation in his lapel for good luck.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT was the first president to ride in a car and to ride in an airplane. He had a guinea pig named Father O'Grady and a snake named Emily Spinach.

JIMMY CARTER's daughter, Amy, was nine years old when her father became president. A tree-house was built for her on the White House grounds.

GEORGE W. BUSH, son of GEORGE H. W. BUSH, was the second president to follow in his father's footsteps. The other presidents were John Adams and his son John Quincy Adams.

DUCK'S VOTER REGISTRATION Crossword Puzzle

ACROSS:

1. Voting takes place on Election _____.
4. Duck runs for the office of _____.
5. Duck visited small-town diners, marched in parades, went to town meetings and gave _____.
8. The Governor demanded a _____.
9. The illustrator of the Duck for President book is _____.
10. Who is officially in charge?
11. Farmer _____

DOWN:

1. The author of the Duck for President book is _____.
2. Duck is covered in tiny bits of grass and espresso _____.
3. President is the _____ office in the land.
4. What animals are responsible for cleaning under the beds?
6. The two sticky lost ballots were found stuck to the bottom of a plate of _____.
7. Running the _____ is very hard work.

DUCK'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY

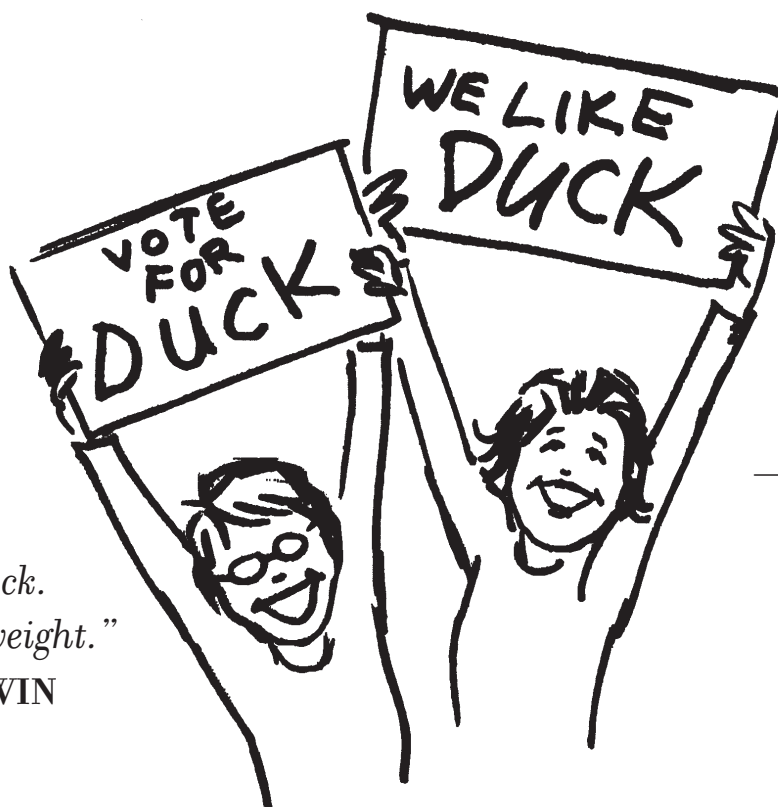

Help Duck write the next chapter of his autobiography . . .

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Doreen Cronin is the author of the best-selling Giggle, Giggle, Quack and Click, Clack, Moo: Cows that Type, which was named a Caldecott Honor Book. She lives in New York with her husband, Andrew.

Betsy Lewin is an award-winning illustrator of many books for children, including Dumpy La Rue by Elizabeth Winthrop and Two Eggs, Please by Sarah Weeks. She received a Caldecott Honor for Click, Clack, Moo: Cows that Type. Betsy Lewin lives in Brooklyn, New York, with her husband, Ted, and two cats.

"Vote for Duck.
He's no featherweight."
—BETSY LEWIN

"Cast your vote,
change the world."
—DOREEN CRONIN

